In the absence of the Secretary, any member of the Management Committee may convene a Special Members' Meeting.
- 4.6 Any requisition must state expressly the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened and if it is intended to put a resolution to the vote by the Members, the proposed text of the resolution.

- 4.7 A Special Members' Meeting called in response to a Members' requisition must be held within 28 days of the date on which the requisition is delivered to the registered office. The meeting is not to transact any business other than that set out in the requisition and the notice convening the meeting. If the Secretary or the Management Committee fail to convene the requisitioned Special Members' Meeting within 28 days, then any two Members of the Society may call the Special Members' Meeting.

Notice of Members' Meetings

- 4.8 Notice of a Members' Meeting is to be given at least 14 clear days before the date of the meeting, by written notice posted or delivered by hand or sent by Electronic Means to every Member at the postal address or address for electronic communications given in the Register of Members.

- 4.10 Seventy-five per cent of Members may agree, by consenting in writing, or by confirming through Electronic Means, to a Members' Meeting being held with less notice than required by Rule 4.8.

Procedure at Members' Meetings

- 4.11 Members' Meetings are open to all Members. The Management Committee may invite particular individuals or representatives of particular organisations to attend a Members' Meeting but unless they are Members, they shall not vote.
- 4.12 Before a Members' Meeting can do business, a minimum number of Members (a quorum) must be present. Except where these Rules say otherwise a quorum is present if 5 Members or 10% of the Members entitled to vote at the meeting (whichever is greater) are present in person.
- 4.13 If no quorum is present within half an hour of the time fixed for the start of any Members' Meeting, the Members' Meeting shall stand adjourned to such time and place as the Chairperson of the Members' Meeting shall determine. If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time fixed for the start of the adjourned meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved if it has been requisitioned by the Members. Any other meeting shall proceed with the number of Members present during the meeting as a valid quorum.

Voting at Members' Meetings

- 4.16 Subject to these Rules and to any Act of Parliament, a resolution put to the vote at a Members' Meeting shall, be decided upon by a show of hands or by proxy.

In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the meeting is to have a second or casting vote.
- 4.19 Unless a ballot is demanded (which may be either before or immediately after the vote), a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution on a show of hands has been carried or lost, unanimously or by a particular majority, is conclusive. An entry made to that effect in the record of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.
- 4.20 Any question as to the acceptability of any vote whether tendered personally or by proxy, shall be determined by the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final.
- 4.21 A ballot on a resolution may be demanded by any three Members at a meeting (in person or by proxy) or may be directed by the Chairperson (and such demand or direction may be withdrawn). The Chairperson may direct that a ballot take place prior to the start of the meeting. A ballot may also be demanded or directed after a vote on the show of hands, and in that case the resolution shall be decided by the ballot.
- 4.22 A ballot shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairperson shall direct. The result of such a ballot shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Society in a Members' Meeting.
- 4.23 Unless these Rules or an Act of Parliament say otherwise:
- 4.23.1 all resolutions are to be ordinary resolutions and decided by a simple majority of the votes cast;
 - 4.23.2 a resolution to change these Rules shall be an Extraordinary Resolution;
 - 4.23.3 a resolution required by the Act shall be a Special Resolution.
- 4.24 Subject to the Act, a resolution in writing signed or confirmed by letter or by Electronic Means by or on behalf of the requisite majority of the Members for the time being entitled to vote on the relevant resolution shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a Members' Meeting duly convened and held provided that a copy of the proposed resolution has been delivered in accordance with these Rules to all Members and the requisite majority of Members referred to in Rule 4.21 have delivered their agreement in accordance with these Rules. Such a resolution may consist of several documents in the same form each signed by one or more Members.

4.25 For the purposes of Rule 4.24, the requisite majorities are

4.25.1 in the case of an ordinary resolution a simple majority of Members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted Members' Meeting;

4.25.2 in the case of an Extraordinary Resolution, at least two-thirds of the Members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting; or

4.25.3 in the case of a Special Resolution, at least three-quarters of the Members who would have been entitled to vote had the resolution been proposed at a properly called and constituted general meeting subject always to any requirement of the Act that a meeting be held to consider the Special Resolution.

Proxies

4.26 Any Member entitled to attend and vote at a Members' Meeting may appoint another person, whether or not a Member as their proxy to attend and vote on their behalf. A proxy can be appointed by delivering a written appointment, which may be by way of Electronic Means, to the registered office, or such other place as may be selected by the Management Committee and stated in the meeting notice, at least 24 hours before the date of the meeting at which the proxy is authorised to vote. It must be signed or confirmed by Electronic Means and sent by the Member or a duly authorised attorney. Any proxy form delivered late shall be invalid. Any question as to the validity of a proxy shall be determined by the Chairperson of the meeting whose decision shall be final.

5 MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

Composition of the Management Committee

- 5.1 The Management Committee shall comprise not less than three and not more than 12 members. At all times a majority of the serving members of the Management Committee shall be persons elected by the Members. Should the cessation of office of any member of the Management Committee cause this requirement to no longer be met, then a sufficient number of co-opted members of the Management Committee are to be deemed to have resigned as members of the Management Committee on the day before the Society would have had a minority of elected Management Committee members. The co-opted members who are to be treated as having resigned shall be selected by lot.

 - 5.11.4.3 The results of that investigation shall be placed before a sub-committee appointed by the Management Committee for the purpose, formed of no more than 3 serving Management Committee members and such independent persons as the Management Committee may appoint.
 - 5.11.4.4 The sub-committee shall consider whether the conduct of the member concerned fell below the standard expected of Management Committee members under these rules, any agreed code of conduct, and the general law.
 - 5.11.4.5 Before taking any decision, the sub-committee shall ensure that the individual concerned has the opportunity to put their case. If they decline to do so, then the sub-committee may proceed to make a decision notwithstanding this.

5.11.4.6 If pursuant to this rule the sub-committee considers that the conduct of the member concerned has fallen below the expected standard then the sub-committee may:

- a) issue such warning as to future conduct, or requirement for additional training, as it sees fit; or

Each member of the Management Committee shall have one vote, and in the event of a tied vote, the Chairperson of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
- 5.17 A resolution sent to all members of the Management Committee and signed or confirmed by Electronic Means by a simple majority or such majority required in these Rules has the same effect as a resolution validly passed at a meeting of the Management Committee. Each member of the Management Committee may sign a separate copy of the resolution and send a signed copy to the Secretary by Electronic Means.
- 5.18 A technical defect in: the appointment of a member of the Management Committee (including any deemed removal under rule 5.1), the delegation of powers to a sub-committee, or the quorum requirements for any meeting of the Society or of the Management Committee, of which the Board is unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken in good faith.

Disclosure of Interests

- 5.19 A member of the Management Committee shall declare an interest and shall not vote in respect of any matter in which they, or their spouse or partner or immediate relative, have a personal, financial or other material interest. If they do vote, their vote shall not be counted.
